(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Oct. 6.—President Wilson outlined his attitude toward the national defense question today to the new advisory board of the navy. He believed, he said, the whole nation was "convinced that we ought to be prepared, not for war, but for defense, and very adequately prepared."

The president received the members of the board, headed by Thos. A. Edison, after their preliminary conference with Secretary Daniels and navy officials. The board later went with Secretary Daniels to the naval proving grounds, at Indian Head, Md., on an inspection tour.

"There is very little that I can say to you," President Wilson said, "except to give you a very cordial welcome and to express my very great pleasure in the association of laymen with the government. But I do want to say this: I think the whole nation is convinced that we ought to be prepared not for war, but for defense, and very adequately prepared; and that the preparation for defense is not merely a technical matter, it is not a matter that the army and navy alone can take care of, but a matter in which we must have the cooperation of the best brains and knowledge of the country outside the official service of the government as well as inside. For my part, I feel that it is only in the spirit of a true democracy that we get together to lend such voluntary aid, the sort of aid that comes from interest, from a knowledge of the varied circumstances that are involved in handling a nation."

"I want you to feel, those of you who are coming to the assistance of the professional officers of the government, that we have a very serious purpose, that we have not asked you to associate yourself with us except for a very definite and practical purpose, to get you to give us your best independent thoughts as to how we ought to make ready for any duty that may fall upon the nation."

"I do not have to expound it to you; you know as well as I do the spirit of America. The spirit of America is one of peace, but one of independence. It is a spirit that is profoundly concerned with peace, because it can express itself best only in peace. It is the spirit of peace and good will and of human freedom; but it is also the spirit of a nation that is self-conscious, that knows and loves its mission in the world, and that knows that it must command the respect of the world. So it seems to me that we are not working as those who would change anything of America, but as those who would preserve it." (Continued on Page 7, Col. 3.)

Lansing Nearly Ready To Send British Note On Trade Interference

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Oct. 6.—Secretary Lansing indicated today that the settlement of the Arabic case had cleared the way for the dispatch of the note to Great Britain, covering the general subject of trade negotiations and interference with American goods in neutral trade. The note has been completed and is ready to be forwarded to Ambassador Page. It is a lengthy document, covering the general situation.

It is understood the note does not specifically cover the problems of the Chicago packers, who are pressing the state department to make representations in behalf of products valued at many millions held up and in part confiscated by the British prize courts. This subject will be covered in a separate communication probably although the course to be followed has not been finally determined.

On the general situation, the American note, it is understood, contends that the burden of proof is upon the British government to show that

NATURAL GAS
CASE PASSED
UNTIL SPRING

The natural gas case which had been appealed to the court of appeals, now in session in this city, has been passed by that court until the spring term next March. This was made necessary by the fact that the court is only hearing error cases this term, all appeal cases being carried over.

The case was appealed after the city had won the decision in common pleas court preventing the Newark Natural Gas company from shutting off its supply of gas for the city. The postponement of the case means that the injunction must stand until the case is finally disposed of and that the gas company must furnish gas until that time.

The court of appeals on Wednesday heard the arguments of counsel in the case of Jane Parks vs. Joseph Walton, a suit for damages for assault and battery.

On the trial in the court of common pleas, the jury assessed the amount of plaintiff's damages at $75. The defendant, Walton, by his attorneys, filed a bill of exceptions, and the plaintiff, Jane Parks, by counsel filed a petition in error. A reversal of the judgment upon the verdict in the court of common pleas is asked, and also that a retrial be granted.

The court of appeals took the case under advisement, and will probably announce a decision on Friday of this week.

Kibler & Kibler appear for Jane Parks, and E. S. Randolph and J. W. Horner for the defendant.

TOMORROW IS SECOND DAY OF
REGISTRATION

Newark voters will have another opportunity tomorrow to register for the municipal election in November. The hours tomorrow are from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. and from 4 p. m. to 9 p. m. The registrars will be on duty during these hours to issue and receive transfers to those who have moved since the last election and have not already been transferred, and to register new voters, those who have moved into the city since the last election or those who have become of age since that time. Voters who have moved would do well to make sure that they are properly registered and are eligible to vote.

Man Who Made the British Drive Possible.

LORD NORTHCLEFFE

This is the most recent photograph of Lord Northcliffe, owner of the London Times and Daily Mail, and a number of other publications, and the greatest man in Great Britain. The British drive against the Germans in the north of France, which has also made possible the French drive in the Champagne country, an action which even Germans admit may mean defeat for them, was due to his courage more than any other man on the allies' side.

Neither the French nor the British could have undertaken this drive had not the British forces under General French—after more than a year of delay—been supplied with cannon and high explosives. It was Lord Northcliffe several months ago who compelled the reformation of the British cabinet which took from Lord Kitchener the matter of supplying munitions of war. Lloyd-George was given the place of minister of munitions in the new cabinet, with the result that the army in the field was supplied with instruments for the great drive. A few months, even weeks, ago Lord Northcliffe was denounced by every Briton who was too stupid to see that high explosives must be provided the army. In the face of condemnation he stuck to his course, and drove the government to action. His sagacity is now evident, and after the slow thinking Britons awake he will probably be hailed as the savior of the nation.

Greek Cabinet Resigns
After Disagreement Of
The King and Premier

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Oct. 6.—King Constantine of Greece has accepted the resignation of the Venizelos cabinet, according to an official dispatch which reached London today.

INTERVIEW BETWEEN VENIZELLOS AND THE KING WAS VERY TERSE.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Athens, Tuesday, Oct. 5.—Via Paris, Oct. 6.—The resignation of Premier Venizelos was altogether unexpected. He conversed with the correspondent of the Associated Press at noon today in a manner which indicated the utmost confidence in the future course of his government.

Meanwhile King Constantine came to Athens from Taos, the summer residence of the Royal family, and summoned the premier to the palace. After a terse interview, in which there was the plainest speaking, the premier proceeded to the chamber of deputies and announced that he had again disagreed with the king on the foreign policy of the country and had presented his resignation and that of his cabinet.

This announcement led to a scene of wild disorder in the chamber. The king is greatly excited. There is much discussion of the formation of a coalition cabinet.

CHAMBER'S SITTINGS HAVE BEEN SUSPENDED.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Athens, Oct. 6.—Via London.—After his conference with King Constantine, Premier Venizelos returned to the chamber of deputies and made a statement of the causes of the disagreement. He then announced the resignation of the entire cabinet.

Sittings of the chamber were suspended.

PRESIDENT

Will Vote For Woman Suffrage Amendment In New Jersey

NOT AS HIS PARTY'S LEADER

But As Expressing His Own Private Convictions

FOR THE GOOD OF STATE

In An Official Announcement However the Executive States In Strong Terms That He Does Not Believe It a Party Issue, Nor a National One But Purely a State Question.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Wilson will vote for the woman suffrage state constitutional amendment in New Jersey, his home state, at the special election, October 19. He said today he would vote not as the leader of the Democratic party, but as a private citizen.

Mr. Wilson said he believed the question should not be made a party issue and should be decided by the states, not the national government.

The following statement was given out at the White House:

"I intend to vote for woman suffrage in New Jersey because I believe that the time has come to extend that privilege and responsibility to the women of the state; but I shall vote, not as the leader of my party, in the nation, but only upon my private convictions as a citizen of New Jersey, called upon by the legislature of the state to express his conviction at the polls. I think that New Jersey will be greatly benefited by the change."

"My position with regard to the way in which this great question should be handled is well known. I believe that it should be settled by the states and not by the national government, and in no circumstances should it be made a party question, and my view has grown stronger at every turn of the agitation."

Secretary Garrison, McAdoo, Reddy and Wilson, he will also vote on the question in the near future, have declared in favor of equal suffrage.

FORMER NEWARK PRISONER WAS FOUND IN RIVER

(Associated Press Telegram)

Zanesville, O., Oct. 6.—Coroner McFarland today began an inquiry into the death of a man already partially identified as John Shannon, who died thirty days in the county jail in Newark for the theft of a pair of rubbers. The body was found Sunday morning in the Muskingum river near the Monroe street bridge, and local officials have not been able to agree upon the probable cause of death. Murder, suicide and accident have all been advanced as possible causes.

Information from Utica Monday was to the effect that he might be William Shannon, who was arrested in that city one week ago and held for investigation, suspected of being an escaped convict from the Port Leavenworth, Kans., federal prison.

J. C. Chipman, a painter of this city, viewed the body Monday and stated that he knew the man in Newark a year ago. They met here again Friday, when Chipman gave him money to buy his dinner.

At that time Chipman claims Shannon told him of his arrest in Utica a week ago. According to Chipman, Shannon was a Scotchman, had been a sailor and had traveled around the world twice. Chipman furnished the information that caused the police to investigate the report that he might be from Utica or Newark. Neither the Utica nor Newark police know the residence of Shannon.

Lieutenant Pettit late last night identified the body as that of Shannon, and recalled that he had been arrested here for drunkenness on July 8. The latrine marks on the body correspond with those given by the Newark police in describing Shannon. While in custody here he gave the impression that he was from East Liverpool.

Senator Robinson has temporarily left her home in Colorado to fight for woman suffrage in those eastern states which failed to see as early as did Colorado, what she considers one of the very important questions of the age. Some of these eastern states are now in the thick of the fight for and against woman suffrage, and this photograph, taken just the other day, shows her making an outdoor speech to New Yorkers, asking them to vote for the state constitutional amendment which will permit women to vote.

(Associated Press Telegram)

New Port, R. I., Oct. 6.—The torpedo boat destroyer Cummins, on board of which two men were burned as a result of an explosion and fire at sea yesterday arrived here early today. The men, George Trullio, a first class fireman, of James, N. M., and Thomas Shea, a water tender of Paterson, N. J., were taken to the naval hospital, where it was said they will recover. The destroyer was only slightly damaged.

An investigation into the cause of the accident will begin today. The two men were in the fire room when the explosion occurred in a quantity of fuel oil. A sheet of flame, shot out. In response to the men's cries, other members of the crew rescued them. The fire was quickly subdued.

The fleet of six battleships and four destroyers which came into Narragansett bay yesterday in the course of their operations as part of the defending fleet in the war game put to sea again during the night. It was understood that the Arkansas, which was reported last night as having had engine trouble, would be taken to the New York navy yard for repairs.

Invention to Detect

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Oct. 6.—Edward F. Chandler, inventor of a system of harbor defenses now being tested by the United States navy by the detection of approach of submarines and battleships with the aid of water microphones announced today, that he has perfected a method of detecting and locating airships by the microphone. Mr. Chandler said that one of the greatest applications of the airship finder would be as a defense against night raids such as the Germans have made upon London with Zeppelins.

Resignation of Greek Cabinet Unexpected.

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Oct. 6.—Word has been received from Athens that King Constantine has accepted the resignation of the Venizelos cabinet, which was unable to agree with the king concerning the country's next step in the fast approaching Balkan crisis. The retirement of the premier and his associates came unheralded, after the Chamber of Deputies had registered a vote of confidence in the ministry. Official telegrams from Athens to the Greek legation here today said Premier Venizelos relinquished his office at 9:30 o'clock last night. No reasons were given, though the former clash of opinions between the King and the premier, resulting in the latter's temporary retirement from office, left little doubt that the present instance involves the now familiar issue raised by Mr. Venizelos' insistence that Greece strike quickly in behalf of Serbia and the entente powers.

It now seems certain that Bulgaria will align herself with Germany, Austria and Turkey. The matter doubtless will be brought to a head by the landing of allied troops in Saloniki. This procedure is regarded here as in effect placing Greece definitely with the entente powers, as she is considered as having virtually acquiesced in this counter move against Bulgaria. Although the time allotted for the Bulgarian reply to Russia's ultimatum expired yesterday afternoon, King Ferdinand so far as has been known, has not seen fit to make answer in any form. It is assumed that hostilities in this new field cannot be averted.

If Bulgaria joins the Teutonic allies, she will enter the war under conditions less favorable than a few weeks ago.

The Russians, with reinforcements and a slowly increasing amount of artillery, seems to be striking harder blows daily, and the official German communications no longer register measurable advances. This situation in the west has reached a stage of renewal of preparations, following the recent allied offensive, and the Germans still are struggling to regain the ground lost. Intensive artillery action is again predominant on the French front, indicating that the positions won have been consolidated and that preparations for another attack are under way.

The Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, according to Amsterdam advices, has protested to the entente powers against air raids over the country aimed at the German headquarters.

BULGARIA
REJECTS
ULTIMATUM

(Associated Press Telegram)

Petrograd, Oct. 6.—Via London. Bulgaria has rejected the Russian demands and has sent an ultimatum to Serbia concerning Macedonia, according to information which has reached the Serbian archbishop Michael, says a Moscow telegram to the Bourse Gazette. Bulgarian demands that Serbia reply to the ultimatum within 24 hours.

Mr. Chandler said that he could easily discover the range, height, speed and direction of a dirigible or other aircraft, in the darkest night. Then, he said, anti-aircraft guns could be used against the invaders.

Explaining his method he said: "If microphones, very sensitive and tuned to catch the vibrations made by an airship's propellers, were placed over a large geometrical figure on the ground, the variance of the effect of the vibrations of the propellers upon separate microphones, gives a ready means for the relative location of the source for the vibration." Mr. Chandler said two governments now at war had approached him to obtain the rights to his invention.

SQUIRREL HUNTERS TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR U. S. PENSIONS

The fight for pensions from the federal government which has been waged for several years by the Squirrel Hunters' individually and as an organization, will be continued and it is probable that some action will be taken at the annual meeting to be held here next Thursday.

In a letter from Joseph Mattice of Wausau, O., to W. A. Smith of this city, Mr. Mattice says he has the promise of his representative that a renewed effort will be made this winter to secure the passage of the legislation.

The "Squirrel Hunters" ask $15 per month for those 65 years old, $15 for those 68 years old and $25 for those 70 years or older, with widows' pensions paid the same as in the case of civil war widows.

These soldiers were not regularly mustered into the service of the federal government but responded to the call of the governor who feared the confederate soldiers were about to invade Ohio.

He stated that Miss Edith Clark, domestic science instructor for the high school was teaching extra hours and that Miss Carrie Zentmyer, domestic science instructor in the elementary grades was teaching a class of twenty-four girls one hour and a half one evening of each week. Miss Zentmyer was allowed extra compensation for the work.

Prof. O. J. Barnes requested the board to assist the athletic department in the rental of Hickey Hall for the season and the board agreed to do so.

The superintendent reported that the first month of the school year had been very satisfactory. The attendance was excellent and the pupils average 38 to the teacher in the elementary grades. The high school teachers have large classes but there will be no necessity during the first semester for extra instructors. He complimented the board for the fine shape in which the buildings had been placed during the summer.

Superintendent of repairs, Frank Handel presented his report to the board. He made 91 calls during the month on account of absence of pupils, finding a number of cases of truancy. He served notices on twelve families and as a result eight students have been placed in the high school and twenty-one in the grades. He also gave an account of repairs made at the different buildings for the past month.

HOSPITAL NOT NECESSARY.

Ohio Woman's Experience.

Utica, Ohio.—"I had painful times for a number of years and for the past three years was so bad that life was a misery to me. The doctors told me I would have to go to a hospital before I would ever be better. A year ago this winter and spring I was worse than before. I was so bad for five months that I knew something must be done, so I wrote to Dr. Pierce telling him as nearly as I could how I suffered. He outlined a course of treatment which I followed to the letter. I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a fifty-cent bottle of 'Smart-weed' and have never suffered much since. I wish I could tell every suffering woman the world over what a boon Dr. Pierce's medicines are. There is no use wasting time and money doctoring with anything or anyone else."—Mrs. B. F. Dickover, Route 4, Utica, Ohio.

An affection confined to women must have its cause in the womanly nature. There is no doubt that a diseased condition of the delicate womanly organs is general responsible for feminine nervousness and an undetermined constitution.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" cures inflammation and female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Get the "Prescription" today—either in liquid or tablet form—if you want to better your physical condition speedily.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's uric waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, you, stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight and you'll be delighted with your youthful appearance within a few days.

Register Tomorrow, 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. and 4 to 9 p. m.

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods, rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regenerative, re-constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds for solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient.

Evans Drug Co., W. A. Erman, 33 N. Third street and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder, and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, are should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

POLICE WILL SEE CHICAGO SALOONS CLOSE ON SUNDAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, Oct. 6.—"Arrest on sight," was the order given to commanding officers of Chicago's police stations by Chief of Police Healey after a long conference today concerning violators of the Sunday saloon closing law, which goes into effect at midnight, Saturday.

Notice is to be served on every license holder—exclusive clubs, summer gardens, cafes and saloons—that all bars must be closed for twenty-four hours, beginning Saturday midnight. The police captains were told to serve notice on all of the 7,152 license holders immediately so that none could plead that he was not allowed ample time in which to carry out the drastic order of Mayor Thompson.

That the mayor's order has had an immediate effect on the financial conditions of summer gardens was indicated when one of the largest filed a petition for a receiver yesterday. It could not continue to operate, it was said, with the Sunday business cut off.

A college freshman may be contented, but he isn't nearly as big a man in his own eyes as in his mother's.

Among the novelties introduced by the new state administration is a state fair deficit of upwards of $25,000 reaching $30,000.

"Put" Sandles may have been careless about his breeders at the state fair ground but he didn't leave any $25,000 deficits lying around.

Lieut. Gov. Jack Arnold is authority for the public statement that the state administration is backing Hon. Ralph B. Cole for the Republican nomination for Governor.

It is scarcely advisable for the ambitious youth to become disgusted with the small opportunities of country life, even if a few bankers are going to get a take-off of $10,000,000 for financing the allies' loan.

Kenneth McKinley, efficiency expert, denounced last year as a "useless brass ornament and a 'fad' has been made secretary of the new state civil service commission with an increase of salary. Now what is he, pray?

Congress is to be asked to stop tipping on sleeping and parlor cars. It will certainly be a blow to the big corporations to have to pay their own help. When will these reckless attacks on great aggregations of capital ever cease?

By this time Managing Director Newton Miller, of the Panama Exposition commission, and that severing of a bottle or boubon in the Ohio building, are again within reaching distance of each other. Here's how:

A newspaper reporter who returned from covering several county fairs says he always was informed, if the quantity of exhibits tell off, that the quality was improved, and if the quality tell off, the quantity had shown a gain.

Some one asks what has become of the man who formerly didn't dare trust his money to the savings banks? Well in a good many cases he is one of the people who have contributed to the $239,000,000 gathered in by mail order swindlers every year.

"I think every young man when he comes of age should consider taking out a life insurance policy as part of his civic duty and should think of the payment of the premium as a part of his annual budget, which is just as necessary as his board, lodging and clothes."—Dr. Lyman Abbott.

While the state administration was wrecking the workmen's compensation law as per contract with the liability insurance companies, the practical attorney general of Ohio reached in and took Eugene C. Glick, summarily fired as an expert adjuster, and made him special counsel at an increase of $1500 a year.

The Paging of Letters.

Some one has started a newspaper discussion about the proper way to page letters. It may be a minor matter. But a considerable number of bad words are constantly elicited by the eccentricities of some people in this respect.

Formerly people wrote letters in a straightforward way. They began on page 1, turned this leaf over and called it page 2 and so on with 3 and 4. Now they may start anywhere and jump to any page on the sheet. One common method is to jump from page 1 to page 4, then write pages 2 and 3. Others will jump from page 1 to page 3, then take 2 and 4 arguing that the two front sides of the leaves should be covered before the two back sides.

Probably the real reason for these peculiarities is the desire to give some originality to a letter. It is apt to be done by the same people who adopt a very striking manner of penmanship which is exceedingly stylish but very illegible. The best written letter is the one written without pretence in the most obvious way, the pages following like the pages in a book.

Dental Dr. David Tod that he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Ohio was extremely wise and to have been expected. It is becoming more and more apparent that no one wants the Republican nomination. Gov. Willis may escape himself but he cannot escape his record in office nor can he eliminate his record for a possible successor. Of course the charge of cowardice may force the governor to come to the front, but there is no one else who wants to if he does not. On 've had almost forgotten Ralph Cole.

The United States wastes by more than any other country in the world. The only way to reduce this great human and economic loss is through concerted action and concerted action is only obtainable when each community does its individual part at a specified time. October 9 has been designated as Fire Prevention Day.

TAKE A LOOK

I You Have Time

Look back on the funerals you have attended and you will be surprised to find that a good many of them were those of men who had been very careful of the diet.

After a man is sixty he talks about last year. Up to the time he is fifty he talks about next year.

It is easy enough to make a speech. To know when you're through is the real test of oratory.

What has become of the old-fashioned beau who, when he walked about with her, took the girl's arm?

Nobody who has followed a plow blames Cincinnati for leaving his in the furrow.

The peanut seems to be the only weapon which discharges two bullets simultaneously.

When a man marries the first time he needs nothing but the consent of the girl and the authorities. But before he marries a second time he must have the approval of his relatives and the neighbors.

Jasper Ellington's position is that if a man served in the war he has a right to wear a goatee. Otherwise, he hasn't.

Unless you have met a mother just after her first baby has cut its first tooth you have no idea of real excitement.

If a girl really wants to land a man, let her hire some good actor to impersonate an indignant father.

Rippling Rhymes

THE BURGLAR

The burglar goes swiping, while honest men sleep their noses a-rippling, tooth snoring loud and deep. The burglar goes stealing on puss-foot boot, with deft fingers feeling round loot. He may get a spoon or a silver teapot, but later on he's rakin' around by you, bed, the sleeper will waken and fill him with lead. A cell in a prison and work without pay—such fortune is his or will be some day.

No comforts can reach him while serving his time. You'd think it would teach him the folly of crime. You'd think he'd endeavor when once he is free to cut out forever the looting-hunting spree. But when the grim cooler has opened its door, one hope is his ruler-to-burgle some more. He goes forth a-stealing, he wallows in sin and peelers come peeling and gather him in. Why is he so foolish, so stubborn, so naive? The fellow so foolish requires a new brain. He honest's easy and proffers us but comes always cheery and ends in a cell. Oh, learn how to argue this warning to you. Don't learn how to argue whatever you do!

Spirit of the Press

Effect on Business.
The anxiety of small investors to participate in the placing of the $500,000,000 Anglo-French loan gives proof that double the amount might have been obtained on like terms. There can hardly be a doubt that the establishment of such an enormous credit in this country is to be used for the single purpose of raising for supplies purchased in this market, will give a great push to the revival of our domestic industries.—Philadelphia Record.

The Oklahoma Farmer.
The average Oklahoma farmer gets up at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, buttons his Chicago suspenders to Detroit overalls, washes his face with Cincinnati soap in a Pennsylvania pan, eats Chicago meat and Minnesota flour, cooked with Texas cottolene on a Newark stove, puts a New York bridle on a Missouri mule, tied with Colorado plow, plows a farm covered with a Vermont mortgage with an Illinois plow. When bedtime comes he reads a chapter from a Bible printed in Boston as a prayer written in Jerusalem crawls under a blanket made in New Jersey only to be kept awake by an Oklahoma dog—the only home product on his place—and then he wonders why he cannot make money raising corn.—Oklahoma State Register.

Troubles That Never Happen.
To the excited Americans who are worrying over the terrible things that European manufacturers are doing to do in these markets after the close of the war, we feel like commending this excellent advice: Don't shake hands with the devil until you meet him.

The end of the war is a long way off, and nobody can tell what it will be or in what condition it will find the countries that have been engaged in the most devastating of all conflicts. Public criticisms in one country for the relief of the desperate and helpless are as likely as any real cause for terror at the activities of an industrialism which it is probable is going to be shot to pieces.

We do know, however, that laws and high taxes resorted to in fear and panic for the purpose of preventing an imaginary overstock of cheap goods may easily inflict more hardship upon the American people than all the unpadding and underselling processes that they may expect very soon. There are plenty of laws even now well calculated to prevent unfair methods in trade.—New York World.

Pointed Observations

Bacon said that reading maketh a full man, but Lord Reading maketh a big loan.—Philadelphia Record.

Von Hindenburg found that breaking the Russian front is a trifle to breaking the Russian back.—Wall Street Journal.

For all around contentment nothing now equals Boston. The Red Sox have the pennant and the Hogan family has at last succeeded in getting its name changed to Homand.—Springfield Republican.

The absence of Congressman Fitzgerald from the House will, of course, be severely felt, but it may not be compelled to shut up shop for all that. It managed to pull through for a while without the presence of Uncle Joe Cannon, you know.—Indianapolis News.

Suggestions for the location of arsenals, arms factories and military schools show that a few members of Congress are doing a little preliminary poking in a quiet sort of way.—Chicago Herald.

In case our leading financiers keep on wanting the best of it, the allies may conclude to get some of those 30 per cent. Georgia bankers interested in the loan.—Washington Post.

Berlin war bulletins about the loss of Hill 191 in the course of time the Germans may finally admit that they lost the battle of the Marne.—New York Evening Sun.

Nature is more generous to mankind than mankind is to itself. While a dozen nations are striving to destroy each other, the unravaged earth rewards the cultivator and supplies ample food resources for another year of destruction.—Omaha Bee.

There is not much hope that Berlin and Paris will ever be in absolute agreement in their war news.—Washington Star.

The bottom dropped out of Broadway and we have a suspicion that it will be Wall Street's turn next.—Boston Transcript.

Pittsburg's October payroll of $32,000,000 for men in the mills and shops gives a new idea of the size of labor's share of industrial profits.—New York World.

In spite of what Napoleon said, God seems to be on the side of the longest supply trains.—New York Mail.

A Little Fun

A Pay Streak.
"Here's something queer," said the dentist. "You say this tooth has never been worked on before, but I find small flakes of gold on my instrument."

The Victor.
A business man, on his return from the office, asked his two little boys:
"Well, what have you been doing all day?"
"Fighting," they replied.
"Fighting, eh?" said the father, and who licked?"
"Ma," they said.—John Hancock Satchel.

Relieved.
Grace (age six): "Mamma could a little girl as little as me be arrested for playing suffragette and breaking a window?"
Her mother: "No, dear, certainly not. Why do you ask?"
Grace (relieved and gleeful): "Oh, I should worry!"—Cornell Widow.

A Pen Portrait of Carlyle.
He looked, I thought, the prophet. His clothes loose and careless, for comfort, now show; the shaggy, unkempt gray thatch of hair; the long beard, the hair almost fleshless face of one who has fasted and suffered, the tyrannous overhanging cliff forehead, the firm heavy mouth and almost challenging chin—the face of a fighter, force everywhere brains and will dominant, strength redeemed by the deepest eyes, most human, beautiful, by turns piercing, luminous, tender, gleaming, pathetic, too, for the light's were usually veiled in brooding sadness, broken often by a look of dumb despair and regret, a strong, sad face, the saddest face I ever studied—all pettified, so to speak, in tearless misery as of one who had come to wreck by his own fault and was tortured by remorse—the worst that dieth not.—From "Contemporary Portraits," by Frank Harris.

Judged by Appearances.
In "Twenty Years of My Life" Douglas Sladen recalls a story told at the Authors' club long ago by Sir J. M. Barrie against himself and in broad Dorn.

"I expect it was just a ben trovato, but it was none the less amusing. He apologized for being late. He had been to the wrong club. He had never been to the Authors' club before, he said (though he was a member of the committee), so he asked a policeman the way. From the way in which he pronounced the word the policeman thought he meant Arthur's, which was quite near the Authors' club when it was in its temporary premises in Park place. When he got there he found it a very grand place, he said. The club porter looked him up and down and said, 'The servants' entrance is round the corner!'"

Verdi and His Admirer.

Verdi was once traveling in the same railway carriage with General Tompon. They got into conversation which soon turned on the subject of music, and the general, who did not know his companion, expressed enthusiastic preference for that of Italy. "I can hardly go so far with you," replied the other. "To me, art has no frontiers, and I give German music the preference over Italian."

"Indeed, sir," said the general testily. "For my part, I would give all the German operas in the world for one act of 'Rigoletto!'"

"You really must excuse me from following you any further on this ground," replied the composer, but a little. "I am Verdi."

NOSTRIOLA is intended to open air passages, soothe, cleanse and partly the membranes, also stops running at nose and hopping of catarrhal poison into the stomach. Register Tomorrow 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. and 4 to 9 p. m.

Memorial Institute of Bees.
In the fortnightly Review Henri Fabre, the naturalist, tells a characteristic story about Darwin and himself. Darwin wished to explain the homing instinct of bees, and he induced Fabre to begin a series of experiments with that purpose in view. A regular plan of campaign was drawn up. Marked bees were placed in a dark box and were carried away from the hive in an opposite direction from that in which they were finally liberated. The box was repeatedly turned about, so that the inmates should lose all sense of direction. Every possible means was taken to render useless any known or conceivable method of outbalancing their bearings. The bees were even placed within an induction coil in the effort to confuse them. The long and elaborate series of tests was without value, so far as getting any explanation of the homing power was concerned. In every case from 30 to 40 per cent of the bees found their way home without apparent trouble, no matter how confusing the trip away from home had been made.

Plant Leaves.
It is a fact that, to the casual observer, all trees look pretty much the same, in some respects at least. But if one looks carefully at the twigs of almost any tree, or, still better, at the young shoots of some rapidly growing plant, they are pretty certain to discover that no two leaves occupy the same position. The fact is, however, that a leaf does not keep always in one position. Everybody knows that they will droop and stand erect again, and that some plants sleep at certain times of the day. A house plant, moreover, grows toward the light, and if the pots are turned about so that the leaves face away from the window, it takes only a day or so for them to assume their old positions.

If now one looks carefully for the joints where this bending is done one can see at once that nearly all the leaves have two—Exchange.

The Faithful Horse.
I don't know who wrote this toast to the horse, but I'd rather read it than Vest's dog speech:

"Here's to that bundle of sentient nerves, with the heart of a woman, the eye of a gazelle, the courage of a gladiator, the docility of a slave, the proud carriage of a king and the blind obedience of a soldier; the companion of the desert plain that turns the moist furrows in the spring in order that all the world may have abundant harvest, that furnishes the sport of kings, that with blazing eye and distended nostril fearlessly lends our greatest generals through courage and renown, whose blood forms one of the ingredients that go to make the link in which all history is written and who finally, in black trappings, pulls the humblest of us to the newly subdued threshold of eternity."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Grit Always Wins.
Grit is the thing that counts. We all know young men who are hanging around waiting for father to slip out of his old shoes. As if a pair of old shoes ever made a man out of a loafer! Why, father's shoes are ten sizes too big for any man that thinks money somebody else has earned will make him a gentleman!

Grit is what these young claps need, whether they know it or not. The day will come when the only man the world will count worthy of its respect will be the man who does things, even if he is forced to shut his teeth hard to keep back the groan of pain.

Folks used to think that the only real soldier was the man who marched away to the sound of file and drum, to shoot and kill and destroy. It is not so.—E. L. Vincent in Farm Life.

Bulls and Bears.
The Stock Exchange use of the term "bear" is with reference to the animals pulling down. The bear pulls down prices, so in the other direction the bull tosses them up. Originally the expression was "a bearskin jobber," applied to a person who sold a bearskin before he had caught his bear. The bearskin jobber was a person who sold stocks which he did not own. Of course he was interested by the fact of his sale to have prices come down and schemed to pull them down. In that way he became called simply a bear without reference to the original proverb.—Philadelphia Press.

Prevention of the Flight of Birds.
To prevent birds from dying without the barbarous and injurious system sometimes of cutting their wings it will be found sufficient to tie together with a thread three or four of the largest feathers of one wing. This destroys the balance, the wings do not set symmetrically in the air, and flight is rendered impossible. Fowls, pigeons, etc., may be kept within bounds in this simple fashion.

Serious Affliction.
"Bliggins is always reading up on germs and worrying about his health."

"Yes, There's not much hope for 'em. Germs are bad enough if you get 'em in your system, but they're worse if you get 'em on your mind."—Washington Star.

The Roc.
The roc, a fabulous bird often referred to in the "Arabian Nights," was believed to be of such enormous size and strength as to be able to carry even elephants in its talons.

Office and Home.
An office is a place where women do what men want done. A home is a place where men do what women want done.—Life.

Fast friends should be slow to anger.

RECALLING HANNIBAL'S PASSAGE OF THE ALPS; AUSTRIANS ROLLING ROCKS ON FOE

An Austrian device for rolling rocks and boulders down the mountains onto Italian troops.

In the mountain warfare now being waged between the Italians and the Austrians, the latter, it will be seen from the above photograph, are resorting to a method which, it might well be said, is "as old as the hills." The rolling of great stones and boulders down a precipitous mountain-side onto an enemy below is a very ancient but still effective mode of bombardment, as the Italians who are trying to make a passage through the Alps are willing to testify.

"These new-fangled dances always remind me of a motorcar," remarked the groom.

"How is that?" asked the old lady.
"You have to use the clutch when you want to get on the high speed," replied the groom.

Advice.
"If you were in my shoes what would you do?" asked Willie White.
"I'd go and get a shoe."

In 1925.
"Our cause has made wonderful progress in the past decade," remarked the first suffragette.
"It certainly has," agreed the second suffragette. "Why, just to think, only ten years ago a man was considered as good as a woman in this country!"

Wuff!
I gave a dime to a blind man who'd just got out of bed.
"Oh, thank you so! I'll go get an 'Eve' opener!" he said.

Paw Knows Everything.

Paw—Yes, my son. They are the red headed girls whose fathers happen to be wealthy.

Luke McLuke Says:
What doth it profit a man to attend a peace meeting and then roll home about 2 a. m. and find his wife waiting up for him?
There are times a man starts, things he can't finish. But the time he starts to make a fool of himself isn't one of them.

Maybe it is a good thing that so many men are poor writers. Good handwriting would only make bad spelling look worse.

Of course being poor has its drawbacks, but you do not have to sit up at night and watch for burglars, and you do not have to soak your mail in the bathtub every morning to fold the fellows who send you infernal machines.

A man will get mad and tell you to go to the devil, but a woman will smile at you and lead you there.

The man who has to dig for a living seldom thinks of the dignity of labor. And what has become of the old fashioned man who, when he sat down to the table, tucked his napkin in his collar as if he were preparing to shave?

It is well understood that a man is an onery pep and that a woman is a defenseless creature. But it is a fact, nevertheless, that when a man and a married woman strike up a flirtation the man seldom starts the flirtation.

There are a lot of men in the world who imagine that a toothbrush is something that is manufactured exclusively for women's use.
A man always wants to hit the little man who insults him. But if the man who insults him is a big man the man who has been insulted is willing to arbitrate the matter.

The Bull.
The bull is a male ruminant, specifically a bovine. The bull is a historical animal. He has been worshipped in Egypt, Greece, in the cattle country, fought in Mexico and Spain and canned in Chicago. The Egyptians called him Apis and built temples to him, but bull worship was not a profitable business, as all the Egyptians who followed the bull were either dust or mummies and have been so for centuries. On the other hand, canning the bull has made a flock of millionaires, so the live ones everywhere have adopted the western idea and pretty generally can the bull. Don't be a bull thrower.—Judge.

District of Columbia.
Maryland in 1788 and Virginia in 1790 gave land comprising 100 square miles. This was organized in 1790-91 as the District of Columbia and became the seat of government in 1800. Afterward the part ceded by Virginia was given back not being needed. The present District of Columbia, therefore, consists of sixty-four square miles, all on the east bank of the Potomac and all ceded by Maryland.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, as by all means get rid of dandruff for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

MR. POWELL DIES SUDDENLY WHILE WIFE IS ABSENT

William Powell, 51 years old, a glass worker employed at the Heisey plant, was found dead in bed this morning at 8 o'clock, his death having been due to heart trouble. It was the opinion of the physician who was called that death occurred about a half hour before the body was found.

Mrs. Powell, his wife, was absent from the city when death occurred, having been visiting her daughter in Cambridge.

Mr. Powell was a native of Wheeling, where he was born fifty-one years ago. He came to Newark from Cambridge about two years ago and has resided here since that time. He was a member of the Wheeling lodge L. O. O. M. and of the glass workers' union.

Besides his wife he leaves three children, Rose and Wilbur, who live at home, and Mrs. Thomas Morgan of Cambridge. Three brothers and four sisters, all living in Wheeling, also survive.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral though it is probable that the body will be taken to Wheeling for funeral and burial.

Your Boys and Girls

A healthy mother should not regard herself, nor permit her family to regard her, as in any case an invalid while nursing. She is much more likely to succeed if she goes about her ordinary duties as usual and fills her life with normal interests. An abundance of sleep is essential and she should have at least eight hours every night and an hour in the daytime.

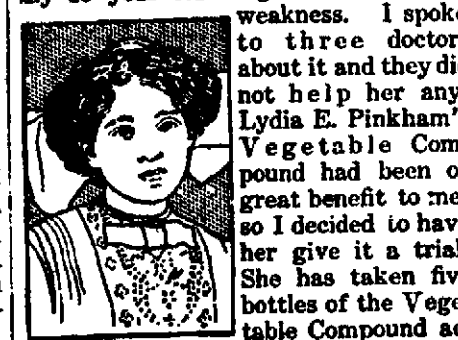

A daily bath is desirable, and should be taken whenever possible. It is especially important to remove the odors of perspiration or old milk from the mother's body and clothing, as the baby may refuse to nurse when an unpleasant odor is forced upon him. A mother soon learns to rest herself whenever the baby nurses, and these brief periods of relaxation help greatly to keep her in good condition.

The Licking County Association A. A. Scottish Rite at the meeting last evening elected the following officers: President, J. L. Worth; Vice President, J. W. Hughes; Secretary, Treasurer, C. L. H. Long; Tyler, C. W. Dugan. Four applications for degrees were passed upon.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Blue Bird at Southern.

On Monday, October 11, Materlinck's spectacular larry play "The Blue Bird," will return to the Southern theatre, Columbus, in the course of its fifth triumphal tour with this one and only organization which has ever presented it in this country.

The prices for this special fare will be 25 cents to $1.50 for the evening performances, instead of $1.00 matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

In "The Blue Bird," Materlinck has revealed a new and cheering philosophy of life, expressing it through the light and delicate fancy of the blue bird, the symbol of Happiness.

The Dog and the Cat that talked. Bread, Milk, Water, Fire, and Light, which took on human shapes and accompanied the children Tyltyl and Mytyl in their quest for Happiness; the ugly Fairy Berylune and her lovely Palace; the Churchyard, the graves of which opened and disclosed a riot of blossoming lilies; the Kingdom of the Future where the unborn children dwell, and the far-off home of the Hours, the Happiness, the Stars, the Mist Maidens and the Blue Children, these are just a few of the wonders that are disclosed to the delighted kiddies and their grown-ups in Maurice Maeterlinck's spectacular fantasy.

Lovely numbers enhance the charm, and there are many group dances by large numbers of young girls.

The boy hero, Tyltyl, will be played by the noted child actor, Mary Eaton.

ASPHALT DANCE MAY BE GIVEN ON HALLOWE'EEN

Over one hundred Elks enjoyed a social session last evening after the regular meeting, the luncheon being prepared by Stewards Col. Billy Hohl and brother Johnny. The menu consisted of Westphalia ham with wine sauce, braised sweetbreads, tenderloins of young pig, scalloped oysters, shrimp salad, apple sauce, pickles, onions, radishes and cheese. A program of short addresses followed after which the vocalists presented several pleasing selections. The Rosebraugh orchestra furnished excellent music throughout the evening, the xylophone numbers were especially enjoyable. Mr. Harry Rosebraugh, manager of the organization, has an orchestra composed of fine musicians and they feature all of the late cabaret hits.

The Elks entertainment committee has taken up the question of an asphalt dance for Halloween night and if arrangements can be made with the city officials the same may be given, the dance to occur on the asphalt in North Fourth street. It would be necessary to rope off a portion of the street from traffic, after which it would be cleaned and then "greased" with soap tene. A platform would be erected, electrical decorations strung along the dance space and a band of at least twenty-five pieces engaged for the occasion. Evalued Ruler James Cooper of the Elks is acting with the entertainment committee. Messrs. Fletcher S. Scott, Dr. H. H. Baker and John Ankele, and these gentlemen would ask the city officials to co-operate with them in case the dance can be given, a great deal depending on the weather at the time. In case it is arranged the best of order would be preserved, the general public would be invited to participate but no improper characters would be allowed.

MUSCULAR BACKACHE

The muscles of the back do the heavy work of the body. When they are overworked or ill nourished they ache and people who are worried for trouble begin to worry about their kidneys.

Backache may be due to lumbago, which is rheumatism of the muscles of the back, but more backaches are caused by overstrain, overwork and muscle starvation due to thin blood than by anything else.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and sufferers from backache would do well to try this treatment before giving way to worry over a fancied organic disease. Rest and the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will correct most forms of backache, even rheumatic.

For people who work too hard or dance too much and sleep too little, better habits and a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are all that are needed to drive away the pains and aches that are warnings of a coming breakdown.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "Nervous Disorders" will be sent free, if you are interested, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the nearest drug store or by mail at 60 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50.

Highway prices scored a material further advance.
Crude oil reports from Illinois and Louisiana with the jump in wheat, tended upward to lift the market still more. The close was strong, 1 1/2 to 2% net higher.

Wall Street.
New York, Oct. 6.—Measures taken by the stock exchange yesterday to curb riotous speculation in war shares resulted in an irregular opening today. Some of those issues, especially Continental Can, Railway Steel, Republic Steel, General Electric and Goodrich were down 1 to 2 points, while Industrial Alcohol, American Car and Distillers Securities, and higher dividend of International Nickel, selling at a dividend of ten per cent stock dividend rose a fraction. U. S. Steel on an offering of 3,000 shares, was half a point lower at 73 1/2. New York Central, Union Pacific and Pennsylvania were firm features of the market.

The rise in the railways stiffened prices until another avalanche of selling looked the market, wiping out considerable part of the gain in the railways and forcing some specialties below yesterday's lowest figures. Liquidation converged around the better known war shares, particularly Crucible Steel, Baldwin Locomotive and Goodrich. Crucible crumpled rapidly, losing over 10 points from its opening price of 94 1/2. Reactions in similar shares ranged from 2 to 3 points but Bethlehem Steel stood out at its new high record of 40 1/2. Moderate improvement followed this decline, closing of operations. Bonds were irregular.

Cleveland Live Stock.

Toledo Hay and Grain.
Toledo, Oct. 6.—Wheat cash 117 1/2¢; Dec. 119 1/2¢; May 120 1/2¢.
Corn, cash 64¢; Dec. 55 1/2¢; May 60 1/2¢.
Oats, cash 37 1/2¢; Dec. 38 1/2¢; May 39 1/2¢.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.
Chicago, Oct. 6.—Wheat, Dec. 106 1/2¢; May 107 1/2¢.
Corn, Dec. 55 1/2¢; May 60 1/2¢.
Oats, Dec. 37 1/2¢; May 39 1/2¢.

Pittsburgh Live Stock.
Pittsburgh, Oct. 6.—Hogs, receipts 2,500; active; heavy and heavy Yorkers 8.50; light Yorkers 7.75 to 8.00; pigs 6.50 to 7.00.
Cattle, receipts 1,000; steady; beef steers 6.20 to 6.50; western steers 6.70 to 7.00; cows and heifers 3.15 to 3.50; calves 3.00 to 3.50; weaners 5.60 to 6.50; lambs 2.00 to 2.50.

Cleveland Produce.
Cleveland, Oct. 6.—Eggs, receipts 14,000; steady; heavy 14 1/2¢; light 13 1/2¢; spring chickens, heavy 14 1/2¢; light 13 1/2¢; fowls and spring chickens 13 1/2¢.

Cincinnati Live Stock.
Cincinnati, Oct. 6.—Hogs, receipts 3,000; steady; pigs and lights 5.00 to 5.50; stags 4.50 to 5.00.
Cattle, receipts 500; steady; heifers 2.15 to 2.50; steady; lambs steady.

Chicago Grain.
Chicago, Oct. 6.—Wheat values bulged today, influenced by a continued falling off in receipts from the west and by the uncertainty of arrivals here. Despatches telling of unsettled weather in the Dakotas and Minnesota added to the revelling bullish sentiment. The market also did assertions that a fall seeding in Kansas would be reduced as much as a million acres compared to last season's total. Opening prices, which ranged from 1 to 1 1/2 higher, with December at 97 1/2¢ to 100 1/2¢, and May at 100 1/2¢ to 103 1/2¢, were followed by decided further upturns. Buying orders from Wall Street houses carried prices upward later in the day. On the advance offerings, bid as high as 3 1/2¢ above yesterday's finish. Then, concerns which have been heavy purchasers of late sold freely. The close, however, was strong and higher than before, with December at 100 1/2¢ and May at 103 1/2¢; a net general advance of 1 1/2 to 2 1/2¢.

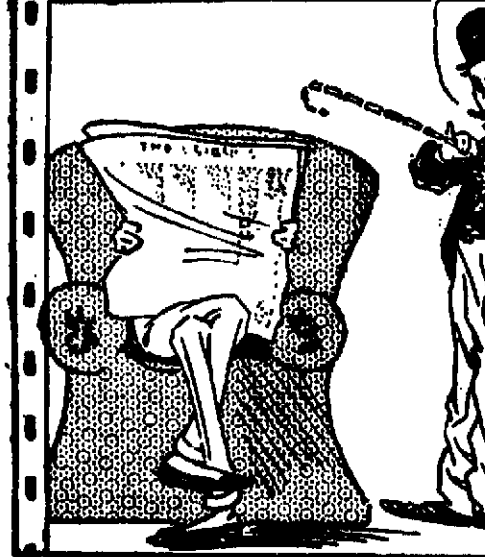

Widespread frost gave strength to the corn market. Rural buying was especially free. After opening 1 1/2 to 1 3/4

C. E. M'DANIEL IS BACKER FOR FOOTBALL TEAM

The Newark Independent football team, an organization of players of ability, will in the future be known as the M'Daniel football team, following the announcement made today that C. E. M'Daniel, restaurant proprietor in North Park place, has consented to become sponsor for the organization. Mr. M'Daniel has always taken keen interest in clean sport and the football team has satisfied him that it is in that class.

Therefore, he it said that the M'Daniel team will on next Sunday afternoon play the team representing the Mideley Rubber Works of Lancaster. The game will be called at 2:45 o'clock.

The Mideleys probably come nearer being equally matched with Newark than any team yet played this season. Newark defeated the Wyandots of Columbus 43 to 0 one week ago Sunday and on last Sunday Lancaster defeated the Wyandots by a score of 48 to 0.

Manager Donovan of the Lancaster team, has written to Manager Meri Orr of Newark that all of his men are experienced and that four of them have starred on Eastern colleges.

The Newark team has secured the services of Mr. Frichen, a former end on the famous Akron team, to aid in coaching the Newark team for the balance of the season.

The team will practice Thursday night and Sunday morning at the usual places.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

May Choose Chillicothe. The Ideal Wheel company, which negotiated with the Newark Board of Trade here to locate its factory for the construction of spring automobile wheels, is now considering Chillicothe as a possible location for the plant, according to the News-Advertiser of that city. The paper states that unless the Newark proposition is accepted, the factory will locate in Chillicothe.

Machine Not Located. Police today sent out postal cards describing the Ford machine stolen Sunday night at the M. E. church, which has not yet been located. The machine was owned by Earl Martin of Black Run. It carried Ohio license tag No. 109891.

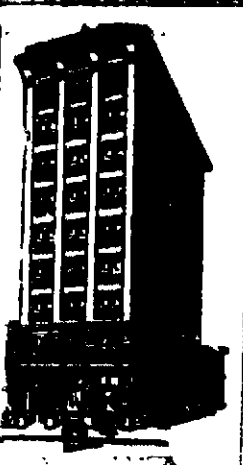

Find Motorcycle. A motorcycle stolen from a young man named Delong in Dewey avenue several days ago, was located by the police when word was received at headquarters that a "stray" machine was seen in the vicinity of Claylick. The machine was brought in by police officers and identified by Delong.

Back From Outing. Attorney and Mrs. A. S. Mitchell have returned from an enjoyable outing in Colorado. After a short visit with friends at Moline, Ill., and Trinity, Col., they left for a trip through the mining districts of that state and also visited Denver, Colorado Springs and a number of mountain resorts.

Every Day Etiquette

"When a new man comes to the office and is introduced to me, should I rise and shake hands or simply acknowledge the introduction while sitting?" queried Mabel the stenographer.

"If it is a business affair you should certainly rise when introduced but need not shake hands unless he extends his hand to you. A courteous bow with an expression of good will on your face is all that is necessary," said her older business friend.

BAG VARIETY OF DUCKS AT BUCKEYE LAKE

Mr. Wm. H. Broome has returned from a several days' duck hunt along the shores of Buckeye Lake. He states, that several wild geese were seen on the cranberry marsh and that ducks are coming in in large numbers.

Mr. Broome succeeded in bagging the limit, twenty-five, for three successive days and as a consequence a number of his friends have been feasting on mallards and canvasbacks.

In Mr. Broome's party were several guests, one the president of a Cincinnati banking company and the other head of a Dayton building and loan association, both being excellent shots. They had nothing on the Newark man however, as his prowess with a duck gun is undisputed.

The game of the party was exhibited last evening and there being such a variety. Mr. Broome was asked to name the different species of the lamellirostral natatorial family on display. He stated that among them were wigwags, gadwalls, spoonbills, pintails, scaups, pochards, canvasbacks, buffleheads, goldeneyes, whistlings, long-tails, butterballs, conjuring, crowducks, dabducks, red-headed, ring-neck, ruddy, squam, sleepyducks, whistleducks, winter ducks and mallards. The birds were much admired and after having them photographed they were distributed among a number of friends.

 structor in Ohio Northern university, and Mr. Scott was a member of a battalion of militia. The genial justice greatly enjoyed his visit, made all the

ADEQUATE

 only as those who would safeguard everything in America. I know that you will enter into conference with the officers of the navy in that spirit and with that feeling, and it makes me proud, gentlemen, that the busy men of America, the men who stand at the front of their professions, should be willing in this way to associate themselves voluntarily with the government in the task in which it needs all sorts of expert and serious service advice. Nothing ought to be done in this by any group of persons—everything ought to be done by all of us united together—and I welcome this association in the most serious and grateful spirit."

The president was warmly applauded by his hearers. Secretary Daniels then introduced each member of the board to the president and he shook hands with them all.
 The trip to Indian Head was made on the presidential yacht Mayflower, members of Secretary Daniels' advisory council of department officials accompanying them.

LANSING

 features of the submarine dispute and of insuring against any new aggra-vation of the situation as well.

Optimism over the outlook for complete settlement was even more pronounced in German quarters here. It was pointed out that Ambassador Bernstorff had full authority from his government to act for it in the negotiations, and that his determination for an amicable adjustment had been amply demonstrated by the wide concessions made in the case of the Arabic.

The crisis in the relations between the United States and Germany growing out of the submarine controversy which came near the breaking point on at least two occasions, is regarded as having passed and all that now remains to the Arabic case is the fixing of the amount of indemnities.

The next feature of the issue to be taken up will be the Lusitania case.
 It has been held up until a settlement with the Arabic case had been reached.

With the Arabic case disposed of,
 the way has now been paved for sending the American note to Great Britain on interference with neutral commerce.

VISITING IN COSHOCTON.
 Mrs. Lester Redding of Columbus is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Callahan, Mulberry street. Mr. Redding will arrive Friday for a visit at the Callahan home.—Coshocton Times Age.

Mr. and Mrs. Redding were former residents of this city. Mr. Redding being a supervising architect on a number of local buildings. His wife was Miss Flo Faulkner, a member of the high school faculty for several years.

 the world won't notice that you limp tion for wisdom by looking wise than others do by asking why's.

NEWARK TELEPHONE CO. MAKES LARGE INCREASE IN TELEPHONE SUBSCRIBERS

Since the publication of the last list of new subscribers about four months ago, the growth of business on the Newark Telephone Company's system has been very gratifying. Three hundred and twenty-four new names have been added to the list, of this number 167 are on the Newark plant and the remainder are on the other small plants belonging to the company's extensive system.
 The Newark automatic plant has nearly reached its capacity. Here and there the company still has a little room for telephones but in certain sections all the lines in the cables are in use. When the automatic switchboard was installed, 3 years ago, last June, the company had 2000 telephones in service. At that time extensions were made to take care of 1000 more telephones. This was thought by the engineers to be sufficient for some years to come. Now the company has nearly 4000 on the city plant alone, and by the time additions can be made this point will be reached. Plans are now being made to increase and extend 25 of the 30 cables which the company has in service and to make extensive additions to the switchboard.

The rural switchboard is also to be enlarged as no new lines can be added here, and provisions will be made for double the number of lines in use at present.

At the present time, automatic lines are in use to and from Columbus and Zanesville and the Newark long distance operator calls subscribers in these two cities directly from her toll board with her automatic dial. The Columbus and Zanesville operators can also call Newark subscribers in the same manner. The Newark long distance operator can also call 60 direct long distance lines connected with the automatic switchboard in Columbus, and therefore reach instantaneously nearly all the most important cities in the state without the intervention of another operator.

For instance, if she wishes to call Cleveland, she uses a dial the same as a local subscriber and the call goes through the automatic switchboard in Columbus instantaneously, and Cleveland is called directly from Newark. This, of course, is the reason why the Independent long distance service is so prompt and accurate.

Plans are now being made by the Newark company to make all the toll lines in Licking county automatic, thus making the toll service instantaneous the same as the local service is at present.

The Newark company, with exchanges at Newark, Granville, Hanover, St. Louis, Gratiot, Glenford and Somerset has 5700 telephones in service. Below is a list of the new subscribers added in the past four months.

PHILLIES NOW THROUGH WITH THE SCHEDULE

A DOUBLE BILL TODAY WINDS UP THE SEASON FOR NATIONALS.

Free List Cut Heavily to Give the Quaker Fans an Opportunity to Get Good Seats.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—With but two days remaining until the opening contest for baseball supremacy of the world, the National league champion Phillies hoped to complete their regular playing schedule in a double-header with Brooklyn today and set about final preparations for the struggle with the Boston Americans. Local fans were anxious that rain, which threatened in the early hours of the day, would not again prevent the games as it was expected that Manager Moran would send Alexander and his other star pitchers, none of whom has been seen in action here for several weeks, to the mound.

There is a feeling of confidence in the Phillies' camp as to the result of the series. Captain Luderus declared that he feels sure his team will come out victors, although he admitted it would probably be a close race. Alexander and Chalmers are almost certain to win their games, he believes, while both Mayer and Rixey stand an excellent chance to humble the Bostonians. The strength of their opponents in all departments was not lost sight of. Luderus added, and "most anything can happen in such a short series."

Phillie stock also has gone up in the estimation of the betting fraternity. While the few bets that were placed several days ago were laid at odds of 13 to 10 with the Red Sox the favorites, several wagers were placed last night at even money.

In an effort to give as many fans as possible an opportunity to see the big games, the Philadelphia club found it necessary to greatly curtail the allotment of tickets for the newspapers and even public officials who, in former years had received large blocks. Considerable resentment at this action was expressed yesterday by a high police official who declined to accept his allotment, declaring that he wanted all the seats he requested "or none."

Notwithstanding the management of the club has taken every precaution to guard against tickets falling into the hands of speculators, several agencies are taking orders.

"Musical Circles"

The Women's Music club of Newark held a business meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Davis, and elected three new officers: first vice president, Mrs. T. J. Evans, which office was vacated by the marriage and removal from the city of Miss Mary Neal; club secretary, Mrs. Chandler Tucker, to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Alma Hilliard's absence from the city, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. J. Daly, which office had never been filled up to the present time.

Several new members were voted on and taken into the club, and several put on the waiting list. The club membership has been limited to fifty active members, for the reason that there has been no permanent meeting place, and not many, if any, of the homes of the members could accommodate more than fifty people. That difficulty is now overcome, as a permanent meeting place has been arranged for. The meetings, which will begin October 7, (tomorrow afternoon) at 3 o'clock will be held in the little brick church formerly occupied by the Welsh Catholic church in Elmwood avenue just

Linoleums Arrived at Newark.

Some days ago this solid carload of linoleums arrived at Newark, O., marked Meyer & Lindorf, Newark, Ohio. We had intended to show you a picture of the unloading of this carload of linoleums but it went bad and we are unable to produce the picture here.

In this carload there were a mighty selection of grades and patterns. Patterns and colorings for every room in the home. Of course, you realize that by us buying linoleums in a carload quantity that we secured a very low price or we would never have bought such a quantity at one time.

To cut this story short we are going to place this carload of linoleums on sale at prices that would be utterly impossible if we were to buy them today. We give you every advantage of our great linoleum purchase. ## RUTH PICTURE DRAWS CROWDS TO ALHAMBRA

The Alhambra played to capacity business again last night, the waiting line at one time extending as far as the Arcade hotel.

All who saw the local photoplay "The Man Haters" enjoyed it and the word quickly spread over town that the picture was worth seeing. There is little doubt that the picture will continue to fill the Alhambra all week. The regular bill is changed today as usual but the "Ruth" picture continues.

A half dozen scenes in the picture were taken at the Weiland residence east of town two of the scenes at Buckeye Lake, four at the Spencer home, several at the Hermann residence in Granville street, one at Mazey's store, several in the Court House park and at other points about town.

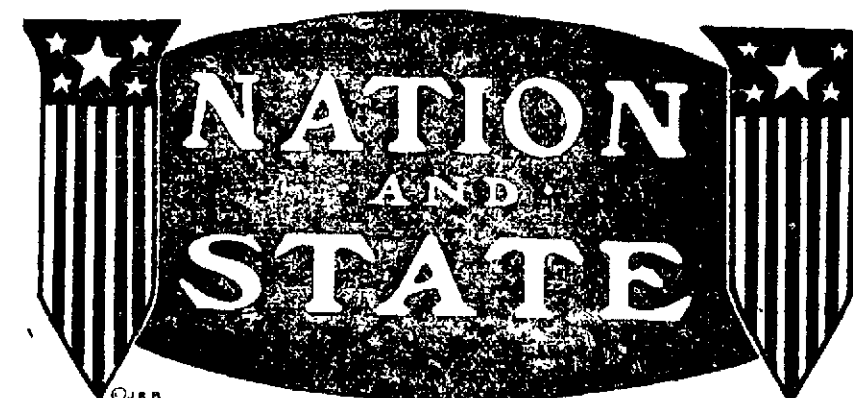

The local picture again proved decidedly pleasing and it is noted that a number of those in the audiences are seeing the picture a second time, there being many features in connection with it which make those who have already seen it anxious to see certain portions again.

The general comment is that the Newark young women and men who are in the cast did surprisingly well, in view of the fact that this was the first experience of any of them in facing a motion picture camera.

The story very brief is this: A club of Newark girls, Misses Florence Stone, Annetta Besuden, Hazel Ather, Decima Wooley, Blanche Trost, Dora Siegel, Thillie Jennings, Margaret Hayes, Grace Nolan, Agnes Donovan and Myrtle Duerr is known as "The Man Haters." Miss Florence Stone as Ruth is the president. Henry (Carl Meyers) sees Ruth downtown and falls in love with her but Ruth gives him no encouragement. Finally through his sister (Marguerite Hayes) Henry gets an introduction to Ruth at Miss Besuden's garden party and then makes some progress in his suit. Ruth consents to go automobile driving and as they speed away (At Weiland's) the club members try to capture them. At Buckeye Lake they jump into a boat but Ruth becomes excited and as she stood in the boat for a moment she fell into the water. Henry bravely plunges to her rescue. The wedding takes place at the court house steps. Miss Besuden faints but is saved from falling by Mr. Devoe. Justice Scott kisses the bride and the whole thing ends happily at Henry's home when Ruth sits upon the arm of Henry's chair and declares that she still hates men—that is all but she and then she proves that she likes Henry by giving him what appears to be a real kiss.
